For instance, the Glasgow Liberal Club rooms were attacked, the barricade defences pulled down, and the furniture smashed. In addition to battering rame, hammers, and crowbars, the Unionists expended 154 cwt. of peasement and 2,000 state eggs. A night or two later, by agreement, the Liberals "replied," the conditions being the attacking party should have two hours for their operations. Unfortunately; though quite naturally, a great crowd assembled to witness the fight, and the pulice had to interfere. The "referee" sounded his whistle; a consultation was held between "the fight conveners" of the respective sides; an attempt was made by the students to assist the police to resist the crowd; but the disorder was so great that the attack on the rooms was stopped, and the fight de-clared drawn. While this was in progress an incident occurred which provoked a pro-test from the Unionists; one of the Liberals who had been taken prisoner, while upon parole in a cellar below, severed a lead pipe, and thus cut off the water supply from the defenders, who had been employing a liosepipe to repoi the besiegers. In such battles and skirmishes, regular and irregular, the students have been enunged for the past few weeks, and the campaign cuiminated in a battle royal on Saturday, in front of the polling—booths.

To the great disappointment of the younger
Aberdeen men, there was no opponent to Mr Andrew Carnegie, who, as a compliment to his services to higher education in Scotland, was elected with ut contest. But the students were determined not to be done out of their usual party fight. They met in the quadrangle of Marischal College; the Unionists ralli d'round a Union Jack; and carried off the Liberal Scottish standard after a abort struggle.

In Edinburgh University, the Earl of Minto, the nomines of the Unionists,, was returned by a majority of 222 votes over the Marquis of Crewe, the Radical candidate. Sir Conan Doyle, who was educated in Edinburgh, has given, in "The Firm of Girdlestone," a picture of a Rectorial fight, which in its main details is still an accurate representation. The main struggle centres round the fountain and the Brewster stabue, which are protected by hoardings, and both parties try to keep this woodwork covered with their particular colours, and emblems. The Unionists, were easily the stronger in this open air contest, and maintained the blue above the red.

In Glasgow, Mr Birrell, Liberal, was elected by a majority of 195 votes over Lord Charles Beresford, Unionist, the success of the Liberals being due to the support of the Asiatic students. The fight was very keen in the neighbourhood of the Examination Hall, the polling-place, and most of the Liberals had to gain access, by a side

POLICE PICKET STONED.

The spirit of rowdyism among the Chineso of the Colony still continues, 'as was evidenced last night when the police picket which pairols the street, was subjected to hostile demonstrations, While passing along Dos Youx Road stones were thrown on two different occasions, but no arrests could be made owing to the fact that this stone-throwers were located at the top of high Chinere tenements, and if the premises were even surrounded they could easily make good their escape. Later on, however, a youth was caught in Queen's Road, near the Central Hotel. He had thrown a basin at the picket from the street and the act was witnessed by Chinese detective who was following up making observations, and who speedly Portsmouth with espionage. arrested him. This morning he was brought before Mr E. A. Irving, at the Magistracy. Mr P. P. J. ITALY AND TURKEY

TURKS ATTACK BY NIGHT

The Turks made a night attack Fort Benghazi on the 3rd inst., surprising the garrison.

A number of Arabs crowded into the gateway and were instantly killed. The Turks were repulsed after severe loss. Three Italians were killed and five wounded. A fresh night attack took place on the 4th inst. when the Turks were again heavily repulsed.

REPORTED GENERAL ADVANCE.

LONDON, Dec. 6. Reuter's correspondent at Rome telegraphs that Italians report a general advance yesterday in which they captured the enemy's main position at Ainzara, including eight guns and ammunition, besides all the provisions and camp equipment. The Turks are in full retreat to the southwest! The Italian casualties are not expected to exceed one hundred while those of the enemy are numbered at several hundred killed alone.

The Daily Despatch declares that this victory ends the period of warfare proper and that henceforth there will only beguerilla operations. Now that Tripeli and the casis-are freed the Turks are definitely cut off from the sea and revictualling bases.

WONDERFUL CURE

"I have been afflicted for iwenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s. morthain, and stings keproly, continuously on my scalp; and it spite of all. I fould do, with the halp of the most shifted doctors, is stowly but surely axiended until a year ago this winter is covered my entire person in the foun of dry scales. For the last three years I lave been unable to do any labor, and malering intensely all the time. Every morning there would be nearly a dust-panful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope contening this letter. In the latter particle, some of them half as large as the envelope contening this letter. In the latter particle, without any relief. The 12th of June I staticle West, in hopes I sould reach the Hot Springs. I feached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lantings, litch, where I had a stater living. One Dr.—treated me about two weeks, but did ms no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I carnestly prayed to dir. Cracked through the skin all over my back, wollen; pedicalla came off; inger-nalls dead and hard he bona; hand dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. O my Godt hog I did numer.

"My sister wouldn't give up; said, 'We will try Cuticura.' Some was applied on one hand and arm. Edreka! there was relief; suppoped the laprible burning sensation from the word so. They immediately got Cuticura. Resolvent, Cintenset and Soap, I counted and applied Cuticura Continuous morning and eventure. Resolvent, Cintenset and shall once a dir, water about blood heat; used-forthours floop freely applied Cuticura Continuous morning and eventure. Resolvent, Cintenset to my horse in just six weaks from the time I left, and my skin as amooth as this sheet of paper. Riram E. Carpenter, Henderson, N. Y., U. S. A."
